New York, June 8.—The steemships Weser, from Bremen, and Folynesia, from Hamburg, are detained at quaranties, owing to cases of snallpox among the passengers. The Weser arrived, having 1,060 steerage passengers, but mose in the cashin. Three passengers, but mose in the cashin. Three passengers are considered to the Riverside houghts, at Blackwell Island. No other cases have inne developed among the passengers, as the original cases were promptly isolated. On the Folynesia, a case of small pox was discovered the second day out, and another developed two days before reaching this port. Four more were detected by the health officers when they were canning the passengers, and the cases were all sent to the Riverside hospital. Another examination was made of the passengers, and four additional cases were detected, showing incipient care of the disease.

A saw enemy to corn has been found. Mr. Charles F. Mills. Secretary of the Liunois Board of Agriculture, reports the appearance of the root-web worm, an enemy to the growing corn. A field of one hundred acres of corn has been completely destroyed by it, so that it is now being replanted. Although working somewhat like heart worm, it belongs to different family. The stalk of the affected plant is found grawed irregularly beneath the earth, sometimes wholly severed, as by a cut worm, but more commonly sacrificed or bored lengthwise, either superficially or through the center of the stalk. From one to eight or tentarve are found in a single bill. The farmers of Illinois are very fearful of the result of its depredations.

A CUTHNO affray occurred Sunday af-ternoon between Paddy Parks and George Sins that resulted in the serious wound-ing of Suns. Parks is a son-in-law of Suns and the parties have not been on good terms since the former's marriage, Suns was cut in the neck. Parks was ar-rested and is now in custody.

rested and is now in custody.

This body of Charles Sheppard who was drowned on Wednesday evening the 3rd inst., was discovered on Sunday floating in the river opposite the residence of Mr. H. H. Collins, in Chester, by some one on the tow boat Sam Brown which passed down about noon. The whistle of the boat attracted the attention of Henry Bode and Martin Spencer who went out and secured the body, and took it to the Chester grade and later to the landing in East Maysville. An inquest was held by Coroner Cockerell and a verdict of accidental drowning rendered. The remains showed marks of decomposition. The remains were buried at the cemetery the same afternoon. ery the same afternoon.

A Soldiers' Mosument.

Inspired by the success of their comrades in Ripley, the members of Joseph Heiser Post, No 13, G. A. R., have formulated plans for the erection of a memorial monument in our beautiful cemetery. The Mayaville Cemetery Company has signified a willingness to give the "Xenton Mound" for the purpose, and the soldiers, will show their appreciation of the liberal proposition of the Cemetery Company by erecting on the monad a magnificent structure. It is designed to build a monument on the monument to be unvalied on or before the 30th day of May, 1837. No interments will be made in the lot on which the monument stands. These are the main conditions, but the soldiers have in view a much higher and more costly structure than specified above.

At a meeting of the Post on Saturday evening, Mesers. Thomas A. Davis, John Heiser, M. C. Hutchins, Geo. M. Clinger, James Heflin, M. McCormick, and Captoil Jacob Miller, ex-officio, were sopointed a committee to carry out the work. No time will be lost in perfecting plans, and our ever-generous citizens will be called upon to contribute to a noble cause and to add in the erection of a memorial which will be a credit to its projectors and the pride of our city.

noble cause and to aid in the erection of a memorial which will be a credit to its projectors and the pride of our city. Mayaville never does things by laives, and we feel sure our merchants especially will feel it a privilege to aid in this labor of love.

"Do the Spirits of the Dead Yisit Us?"
We don't know. But we do know that some people who suffer from indigestion and impoverished blood have strange and impoverished blood have strange dreams, in which they see many un-pleasant things. Sweet sleep is a bless-ling which comes with sound health and good digestion. Brown's Iron Bitters drives out indigestion and bad dreams, drives out indigestion and bad dreams, and gives health, good sleep and vigorous life. Life was a burden to Mrs. L. F. Griffen of 37 Walker St., Baltimore, because of dyspepsia and bad blood, but she writes that Brown's Iron Bitters gave her relief.

A little daughter of Wesley McGill, of Manchester, Ohio, was drowned in the chute at that place on Sunday. The child was in a boat with her father and an older sister, and by some means both of them fell out. The latter was saved but the younger one was swept under a flat boat and lost.

PRESS COMMENTS ON OUR MINIS TER'S SPEECH-MAKING.

Acquisition to the Highest Social as fificial Society of Lodon"—Startling Reports—Cierical Lobbying—The Spanish Treaty— Notes

Spanish Treaty — Notes

LONDON, June 8, —Minister Phelps' diplomatic debut is warmly commented by the London press. The following extracts gives its average sentiment:
Says the St. James Gnaette: "Americans, if not a nation of orators, are at any rate a nation of uncommonly neat public speakers. The new minister to whom is given the difficult task of filling Mr. Lowell's place is not an exception. He made an extremely felicitons little speech at the Mansion house."
The tities eather "Mr. Phelps, taken frow
what he is, without reference to his brillians profescessor, he an acquisition condon. With delicate art he conveys, even in his modest exceptance of the welcome accorded to him
as a compliment to his country rather than to himself, a "subtle flattery and dignities
made a decidedity good impression at the Mansion house when he delivered his first speech. Mr. Phelps has a good voice and smooth, graceful delivery."
